

2010 National School Conference on International Youth Exchange

Charlotte, North Carolina ♦ February 19-20, 2010

Who should attend this conference?

International education and exchange advocates, school administrators and educators, including principals and assistant principals, guidance counselors, and foreign language and social studies teachers, are invited to learn, share, and discuss about topics related to international youth exchange.

Why should you participate?

- ♦ INTERNATIONALIZE your school community
- ♦ LEARN how exchange programs operate and how to work with them
- ♦ IMPROVE the quality of youth exchange in your school
- ♦ STRENGTHEN your network with school colleagues working in youth exchange
- ♦ PROMOTE global education through best strategies and practices

How to register?

Visit the CSIET website [www.CSIET.org] and click on the 2010 National School Conference under Upcoming Events to print the registration form.

If you have questions, contact CSIET at mailbox@csiet.org or 703-739-9050.

The 3rd Annual National School Conference on International Youth Exchange will provide a unique opportunity for school leaders, educators and administrators to meet and network with school colleagues and leaders of various youth exchange programs. The Council on Standards for International Educational Travel, the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction and Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools have come together to sponsor this conference to provide a forum on a wide range of topics related to international youth exchange. The conference will include informative sessions, addressing such topics as trouble shooting for school administrators, F-1 and J-1 visas, school-to-school exchanges, outbound exchanges, advocacy, and tools to make the most out of an exchange experience for the students, teachers, and school communities.

February 19-20, 2010 ♦ Charlotte Marriott City Center ♦ 100 West Trade Street, Charlotte, North Carolina