OHSAA Releases Football Regional Quarterfinal Pairings and Final Computer Ratings

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Following the conclusion of the football regular-season Saturday night, the Ohio High School Athletic Association has released the regional quarterfinal pairings and final computer ratings. For the 13th year, 192 teams have qualified for the playoffs, representing four regions from each of six divisions.

OHSAA Football Regional Quarterfinal Pairings

Listed below are the pairings for the regional quarterfinals (first-round) of the 2011 OHSAA football tournaments. The pairings include the seeds, schools and won-lost records of the qualifiers. Seeds 1-4 are regional quarterfinal hosts and will meet with the OHSAA in Columbus on Monday (Oct. 31) to finalize game details.

The next three rounds (regional semifinals, regional finals and state semifinals) will all be played at neutral sites selected by the OHSAA and announced on Sunday afternoons. The state championships will be played at Massillon Paul Brown Tiger Stadium and Canton Fawcett Stadium December 2-3.
