

October 18, 2011

Discount Tickets Available for 2011 OHSAA State Football Finals

Fans who cannot make it to all six Ohio High School Athletic Association State Football Championship games but still want to be part of "High School Football's Greatest Weekend" have several options to purchase special discount ticket packages. The state finals are December 2 and 3 at Canton's Fawcett Stadium and Massillon's Paul Brown Tiger Stadium.

The Four-Game Fun Pack allows fans that work, attend school or have other commitments during the day on Friday to attend that evening's final and Saturday's three championship games. Those interested in just attending Saturday's three title games can choose from a Coaches Three-Pack, Team/Group Knot-Hole Special or an Officials Three-Pack. To order tickets online, go to www.ohsafootball.com, or call 1-800-533-4302. Here are more details on the four special ticket offers:

2011 FOUR-GAME FUN PACK (Open to All Football Fans)

- Purchase a special end zone ticket for Friday night's (Dec. 2) 7:00 championship game and all three championship games on Saturday, Dec. 3, for just $25* apiece (a savings of $15 per person!).

2011 COACHES THREE-PACK (Open to All OHSAA Coaches)

- Purchase a special end zone ticket for all three championship games on Saturday, Dec. 3, for just $20* apiece (a savings of $10 per person!).
- Includes admission to two halftime coaches receptions, which include free food and beverages (must verify membership in the state football coaches association for admittance).

2011 TEAM/GROUP KNOT-HOLE SPECIAL (Open to All Teams and Groups)

- Purchase a special end zone ticket for any championship game on Saturday, Dec. 3, for just $5* apiece (half off the game-day price!).
- To receive this discount price, a minimum of five orders for a game must be purchased. Groups may purchase tickets for one, two or all three championship game(s).

2011 OFFICIALS THREE-PACK (Open to All OHSAA Officials)

- Purchase a special end zone ticket for all three championship games on Saturday, Dec. 3, for just $20* apiece (a savings of $10 per person!).
- Includes admission to an officials reception at the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which includes free food and beverages (must present your OHSAA Officials Permit for admittance).

* Denotes plus postage and handling charges.

All-session tickets for all six championship games are also available at $48.50 per person plus postage and handling. Fans can go to the same website as listed above to place their order. The website also gives fans the ability to purchase two-day parking passes, two-day motor home parking passes and a reduced rate souvenir program.

The 2011 championship game schedule is as follows: Friday, Dec. 2 — 11:00 – Division V, Massillon; 3:00 – Division III, Canton and 7:00 – Division II, Massillon; and Saturday, Dec. 3 — 11:00 – Division VI, Canton; 3:00 – Division IV, Massillon, and 7:00 – Division I, Canton.

The deadline to order all-session or special discounted tickets is Wednesday, November 16, at 5:00 p.m.). Single-game tickets are currently not on sale but will be available at the 12 participating state finalist schools the week of the contests for $8 apiece or at the gate of each stadium prior to kickoff for $10 each.