

OHSAA 2012 Football Radio Listing

The OHSAA is pleased to once again compile a list of radio stations around the state that broadcast high school football games. Stations appearing on the list should confirm their plans to broadcast games in 2012 in order to appear in bold print on this list. Please contact Tim Stried at tstried@ohsaa.org and Paul Seiter at pseiter@ohsaa.org to confirm plans or update information.

In addition, stations have the opportunity to opt into one of two programs in conjunction with the OHSAA Radio Network that will result in a reduction or waiver of broadcast rights fees for football playoff games (normal fees range from $80 to $100).

2012 Football Plan A: Stations that carry at least three football state championship games of the OHSAA Radio Network shall not pay any broadcast rights fees for football playoff games the station broadcasts itself. Phone line charges or hook-up fees may apply according to the site.

2012 Football Plan B: Stations that commit to carry one or two football state championship broadcasts of the OHSAA Radio Network shall pay only pay $25 for any playoff games they broadcast themselves. Phone line charges or hook-up fees may apply according to the site.
