Welcome to the 2012 State Wrestling Championships

A great deal of information – both in the official program and in this media guide – is available to each of you covering the tournament. Besides the charts that are in this guide, there are two other main sources of information available for your use.

At last weekend's District competition, each state qualifier was given a media form to fill out. While not all were returned, a vast majority were. A sample of the form is enclosed in this packet. Should you need to use these forms, please contact one of the OHSAA representatives along media row.

The other item is the list of every state placer from 1938-2006 (please note that there are two lists). The first covers the years 1938-1999 and the second covers 2000-2006. The 2008-2011 results are included in this guide. It is categorized by school, then place, year and finally by wrestler's last name. There are still some bugs in the list. In the early years, some first names were not known and some last names may appear with different spellings. Question marks point out an obvious discrepancy.

Note that wrestlers are listed by the school name at the time they attended (i.e. Kettering Fairmont East/West). However, if the school changed mailing addresses (i.e. Dayton Wayne to Huber Heights Wayne) then the school is listed by its new location. Schools that have added to their name, because of an additional school being built (i.e. Pickerington Central/North) are listed according to what the school is currently called.

Richard Tschantz & Ron Tschantz

Wrestling has been a part for the Tschantz brother's lives for over 40 years.

The twin brothers, Rick and Ron, were a part of the Carrollton High School wrestling dynasty from 1968-1972 and were state qualifiers in 1972. Rick was Carrollton's first state finalist. Both have been inducted into the Carrollton High School Athletic Hall of Fame. Rick and Ron also wrestled at Mount Union College, where Rick became one of their first NCAA Division III Wrestling All-Americans.

They both attribute much of their competitive drive and success in life to the foundation and respect their coaches instilled in them, and the unwavering support of their family.

Driven to give back to the sport, the brothers became wrestling officials and have officiated hundreds of high school matches and tournaments. Dedicated to promoting good sportsmanship, respect and fair play on and off the mats, they have strived to maintain the high standard of officiating performance that Ohio wrestlers and coaches deserve. They have enjoyed being part of the brotherhood of wrestling officials, appreciating the camaraderie, building lasting friendships, and participating in the effort to advance the sport.

Rick is the Vice President of Engineered Systems and Ron Vice President of Sales for Imperial Technologies, Inc., a Canton based company that evolved from a business they started with their parents. Imperial Technologies designs, builds and services equipment for handling, preparing and conveying bulk materials. In addition to their demanding work lives, they are busy raising families. Rick resides near Louisville with his wife Venita and three daughters, one of whom is married and has a son. Ron, with his wife Cindy and two children, reside at Lake Mohawk near Malvern.

Rick started officiating in 1978 and retired in 2011 after 32 years. Ron started in 1983 is in his 27th year. Rick and Ron are members of the Western Reserve Wrestling Officials Association and Ron helped reactivate the Eastern District Wrestling Officials Association. Ron has also been an officer of the Ohio Wrestling Officials Association for over ten years. In addition, they have had the privilege of singing the National Anthem to open the OHSAA State Wrestling Tournament for the past decade. They have worked on the mats and score tables for even longer. They characterize these years as a "great run with lots of fun!"
